presented by

Palmetto Trust for Historic Preservation

S.C. Department of Archives and History

Office of the Governor

Each year

thousands of South Carolinians work to preserve the state's legacy that is reflected in our historic buildings, structures, and sites. The Palmetto Trust for Historic Preservation, the S.C. Department of Archives and History, and the Office of the Governor recognize exceptional accomplishments in the preservation, rehabilitation, and interpretation of our architectural and cultural heritage.

These efforts demonstrate outstanding commitment to preserving South Carolina's history; therefore these organizations are pleased to announce the sixteenth annual South Carolina Historic Preservation Awards, recognizing exemplary work in historic preservation in South Carolina.

The participating organizations invite you to nominate those individuals or organizations that represent the best of historic preservation in our state. To view past award recipients, log on to <http://shpo.sc.gov/programs/awards>.

Honor Awards

The Honor Awards celebrate successful and exemplary historic preservation projects around the Palmetto State. No more than five Honor Awards will be presented in one year.

Any individual, organization, government agency or business involved in the preservation of historic buildings, structures, or sites in South Carolina is eligible to receive an Honor Award for a historic preservation project. Multiple players in a project may be nominated, but may not exceed three.

Award Criteria

A panel of judges will consider the following:

- ❖ Completion date (projects must have been completed within the last five years)
- ❖ Project's impact on the community and/or the state
- ❖ Degree of difficulty of project
- ❖ Degree to which project serves as an example of outstanding commitment to historic preservation and exemplary preservation techniques

2010 Honor Award Recipients
